MALARIA
This is the season when many persons suffer from malaria. The aching bones, tired feeling, slight fever, and perhaps a coated tongue, show that the poison is at work. To put a stop to this, as well as to cure regular fever and ague, use either
CASPER'S ANTI-MALARIAL PILLS OR Casper's Fever and Ague Mixture Dr. Casper also has for sale all of the other standard Fever and Ague Medicines also.
Quinine in Pills or Powders.
The true genuine article and no admixture whatever. These and all other malaria medicines, with full directions, for sale at

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Band of Hope will meet at Temperance hall, Sunday afternoon, at 2:30.

Mr. C. C. Thomas is quite sick at his room on the west side of market space.

Dr. L. E. Custer has gone to Philadelphia on business. He will be absent about two weeks.

Mr. Charles Reid goes to Columbus Monday, to enter the excellent stenographic college there.

Mrs. Davis, of Harmony, is in the city visiting her husband and friends on south Center street.

Dr. E. G. Alcorn, a prominent oculist from Cincinnati, is in the city, and is about to locate here.

Mr. John Powers has gone to Yellow Springs for the purpose of taking unto himself a wife.

Miss Mary Lewis, of the north side, leaves Monday to enter Wellesley college, near Boston, Mass.

Mr. John S. Shewalter, the popular city clerk, was in Mechanicburg yesterday attending the M. E. conference.

Mr. George Irvin Reid, of Jackson, Mich., who has been the guest of relatives in the city for the past three or four weeks, left yesterday for home.

Mrs. F. A. Kirkpatrick, of Richardson street, Dayton, is the guest of her son, Captain T. J. Kirkpatrick, of south Limestone street, for a week or two.

Messrs. Richard Rodgers and John M.
Winger are at Harrisburg, Pa., this week, attending the Inter-state picnic of Grangers, which is held at Williams's grove.

Mrs. Frank J. Webb and son returned here from a summer's sojourn at Lakewood, Chautauqua lake, Wednesday. The "young gentleman" is much improved in health.

Mr. Samuel Fletcher, advance agent of W. H. Powers's Ivy Leaf company, which is to appear at the Grand opera house next Friday and Saturday, September 9 and 10, is in the city.

turned last evening from Ligonier, Ind., where she had been spending the summer with her daughter.

The Accidentals have accepted a challenge to accidentally drop around to Wilmington on Wednesday, September 7, and hitch horns with the colored club of that city.

Boys, don't lose your passes on this trip.
Conductor E. M. Gregory, late of the I.
B. & W. road, has resigned his position and accepted a better one on Georgia Pacific road, running out of Atlanta. Conductor Gregory is a good railroad man and clever gentleman, and his friends here see him leave with real regret.

Messrs. Dick Hughes and "Bussy" Wilson returned yesterday afternoon from their trip to the reservoir, at Huntsville. They brought back fifty-one fine fat ducks and report splendid sport. The Republic was remembered with a brace of the best of them for which due thanks are returned.
Dr. Russell is still on the shooting grounds.

The primary department of the Trinity Baptist mission chapel at the corner of Pleasant street and the old Dayton road, picnicked very delightfully in Hughes's grove Thursday afternoon, about seventy teachers and pupils being present. The little people met at the chapel and adjoined to the woods in a body. The day was spent in feasting, and the usual out-door sports of such an occasion. The chapel is in a flourishing condition and is steadily growing.

He Has a Fit.
A young man, whose name we are not at liberty to mention, recently created considerable excitement on one of our leading business thoroughfares by having what is commonly termed a fit.

The young man has heretofore shown no signs of this malady, and solemnly asserts that it is the first time in his life that he was ever subject to such an affliction.

His reappearance on the street after his recovery has occasioned considerable comment among his friends, by reason of the marked change in his general bearing and appearance.

This fit was secured at Jason W. Phil-lips's mercantile establishment, 39 east Main street, and for a nobby, stylish suit challenges comparison with any other house in the city. His stock is thoroughly new and complete, and consists of all the latest novelties in woolsens.

For artistic cutting he hasn't an equal, and in price he can underbid the lowest.
Call and see him, at 39 east Main street.

THE FIRST REUNION.
Colonel Putman's 132d O. V. I. Meets at Greenville—The Springfield "Boys" in Force—Detailed Account of the Proceedings.
In the spring of 1864, Ohio, through Governor John Brough, sent 38,000 Hundred Days' men to Virginia and elsewhere, and of that force was the 132d regiment, composed of the 28th O. N. G., Darke county regiment, and two companies of the 46th from this city. The latter were Companies E and K. Captains A. S. Rushnell and Charles A. Welch, in the 132d, which organized at Camp Dennison and left for New Creek, Virginia, May 17, 1864. The regiment was mustered out September 2, 1864, and, on the twenty-third anniversary of that interesting ceremony, on Friday next at Greenville, O., its first reunion, effecting a permanent organization.

The two Springfield companies were well represented, both Captains Rushnell and Welch, with Lieutenants A. S. Hatch, of Co.
E, attending. There were present of E's boys, going from home, besides the officers named, Corporal P. B. S. Dyer, Corporal John H. Johnson, Corporal A. P. L. Cochran, Wm. H. Grant, Jonas Drury, Joseph Miller, G. W. Winger, J. B. Thompson, C. E. Folger, Cy. Albin, Dan Huben, At Greenville were found Orderly Sergeant M. C. Powell, of Paulding; Corporal Rodney Strickland, of Cosport; Lieut. N. H. McCarter, of Champaign county, and Albertus Rahl, of Cos-port, Miami county.

Company K's boys were Captain Welch, Orderly Sergeant Joel Funk, Sergeant C. M.
Tuttle, John Arbogast, John Cornell, C.
Gillon, A. H. Gillett, M. Gallagher, Albert Tuttle, R. C. Nelson, James Butler, W. W.
Neal, D. C. Lawrence, James Perkins, Fred Thresher, Wm. B. Locke.

The party, with the exception of eight of company K, who missed the first train, arrived at Greenville about 9 o'clock.

The business meeting was held in Mozart hall, a place splendidly adapted for the purpose, which was filled. Col. David Putman, the old commander, presided, with Lieut. C. B. Northrop as secretary. The proceedings opened with prayer by Chaplain T. S. Guthrie, formerly of this city.

An address of welcome was delivered, in the absence of Greenville's mayor, by Judge Calderwood, of Columbus. Colonel Putman made an address, which received the close attention of the boys, as it gave them facts of more than ordinary interest, not before known to them, in the illness of a review of the regiment's experiences.

At noon the regiment, with guests, formed and marched to City hall, where the usual big dinner was spread, but as it was the closed was not so get away with it.
Reassembling at the hall at 2 o'clock business was resumed. A nominating committee of one for each company presented names of officers of the proposed regimental association, which report was confirmed as follows: President, Colonel David Putman; corresponding secretary, Lieutenant A. H.
Hyde, company H; recording secretary, H.
M. Cole; treasurer, James McNeal. The same committee reported in favor of accepting an invitation to hold the next reunion at Arcanum September 2, 1888.

The rolls were completed and it was found companies were represented as follows:
Company A 23, B 18, C 22, D 10, E 14, H 14, F 17, G 16, I 21, Total, 172.
With the officers and others who failed to register the total attendance was a little over 200.

The regimental flag, minus the staff and pretty well tattered by this time, was displayed and the question of caring for it discussed. It was finally decided to place it upon a staff and deposit in the flag room of the capitol at Columbus. Speeches were next in order and Colonel Putman, Chaplain Guthrie, Lieutenant Northrop, Captain Rushnell, Comrade Gillett, Company K, and one or two others, more briefly. Captain Bushnell in his remarks returned thanks, on behalf of the Springfield companies, for the reception and courtesies extended them and responded to the address of welcome by Judge Calderwood.

Companies E and K reached home, satisfied with the trip, at 10:30 Friday night.
They all have a good time at Greenville, which is one of the very prettiest towns in western Ohio.

TO THE FRONT.

The New Grocery and Daily Market of Whitehead & Gard Brothers—Their New Goods and Opening.

The new grocery and daily market, corner of Market and High streets, is now opened by Messrs. Frank Whitehead and the Gard brothers, sons of the late Mr.
Silas H. Gard, of Tremont City.
Only a short time ago Mr. Frank Whitehead came to this city to clerk in a grocery, and it wasn't long until he acquired thorough knowledge of the business, and with push, energy and capital that he displayed, he was soon a proprietor of a store.
Buying a store and making it with good goods, he gained a splendid business by close attention and business principles.

Further branching out has found him opening a new and large business with the Gard brothers, Emerson E. and Victor H., who well up and good business young men.
They are popular and will soon have a long list of friends.

The new store, Morrow's old stand, has been refitted and entirely changed. The stock will embrace all the staple and fancy groceries and green groceries, fruits, fish and meat market. A complete store for eatables. All the goods are the best quality and careful attention is given to each and every customer. It is well worth a visit to this store.
It is the only one in the city that is complete in all respects as a daily grocery and market, where everything in edibles can be had.

Pay a visit to this metropolitan fruit house and you will find the very nicest goods in the market.

Mr. Albert Thompson, of the Driscoll carriage works, whose wife horse-whipped young Atchison, at the shop, a day or two ago, called at the Republic office last evening, to state that the statement published in the Republic was substantially correct, except that he did not hold Atchison during the infliction of the punishment. He wants this understood.

Captain T. J. Kirkpatrick goes to Cleveland next Monday, to meet Miss Lizzie Mast, who is on her way home from Mac-inac, where she spent the summer, greatly to the improvement of her health. Miss Mast is accompanied by her maid.

The Shoe Business.
Messrs. Rouse & Parsons, the reliable shoe men, are booming things in their line, and are offering some very excellent goods.
They are a good firm to deal with and their regular customers and as many more new ones will find good goods at No. 26 south Market street.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.
DEVELOPING ONE SET OF MUSCLES AT THE EXPENSE OF OTHERS.

Pedestrianism, Rowing, Baseball, Tennis and Running—The sensible and Physiological Way—Horseback Exercise—Field Sports Very Healthful.

I am a strong believer in physical culture, but physical culture is something entirely different from outdoor sports as they are carried on at present. Americans do not take enough exercise. Many patients that come to the doctor need outdoor exercise more than they do medicine.
As some one has said, the dyspepsia from which a man suffers oftentimes more from his legs than from his stomach.

The great difficulty with our sports is that they develop one set of muscles at the expense of the others. A man who trains for a specialty is trained only in the parts of the body brought chiefly into play in that particular sport or recreation. A tennis player trains in one way, a runner in another, while a boatman goes through an entirely different course from either. Each of these athletes is strong in one direction, but he has neglected general muscular exercises for the sake of developing a special locality. It will be found that the man who is physically strong in a special sport is weak in some part of his body. A man, for instance, who intends to be a runner will so train as to develop the muscles of his legs; but he will reduce the weight of his body above his legs in order to carry less weight.

DANGERS OF POPULAR SPORTS.

Pedestrianism is wholesome when indulged in for pleasure, but is bad in contests. The professional pedestrian finally becomes thoroughly broken up; the stomach and general system are exhausted by too much exertion. Rowing is one of the best exercises indulged in moderately, but an oarsman can row in a contest until entirely exhausted and not know it until he is taken from his boat paralyzed, so to speak.

Baseball is full of danger, especially to the pitcher. So true is this that the "base ball pitcher's arm" as well as the "tennis arm" are recognized in the medical profession as special diseases. The exercise in baseball is very violent and sooner or later causes overstrain.

Tennis is a violent exercise and is liable to be carried too far.

Running is too much of an outburst to be of service in a general way, and is only good on account of the previous training necessary to follow it up. It carries the runner ready with it in the natural giving out of his legs before the rest of the body is exhausted.

Training should bring up the general physical status to a point that will enable him to endure his attempt and with just a little to spare for the push of the urgent moment. There should be just enough strength left to make the finish better than the start—to break the record of the individual, so to speak, and leave him in better physical condition than before.

The sensible and physiological way for a man to take outdoor sport is, acting on medical authority, to develop by special exercises the parts of his body that are weak. If a man takes any pride in a symmetrically rounded physique he should give his whole attention to the organs that are weak.

HORSEBACK EXERCISE—HUNTING.

It is surprising to me that horseback exercise is not more indulged in than it is.
Many young men spend enough money on their vices or follies to enable them to keep a horse. I would suggest that they who cannot own a horse riding club might be formed. Let the horses be used by the members of clubs just as boats are used by boaters. The expense of keeping the horses under such conditions, when divided up among members, would be small, and the horseback exercise could be varied with the more vigorous sports in which young men now indulge.

They all have a good time at Greenville,
which is one of the very prettiest
towns in western Ohio.

I do not know of any outdoor exercise so suitable for men as the sports of the field. Hunting is a healthful and beneficial sport. There is just enough excitement about it to make the exercise you take beneficial. While you are walking you are thinking about something of interest; while your body is being exercised your brain gets a stimulus. Hunting is good for the well and good for many who are sick. I have known invalids sent to the woods with the advice that they should "go shooting" to come back restored in health.

The man who combines hunting in the field with horseback riding, as is done in the south, has the best kind of outdoor exercise. Field sports are for young men; the older ones must be content with fishing or following the rabbit. S. Fleet Spier, M. D., in The Epoch.

They Both Took Tips.

Near Central park there lives a woman who occupies a comfortable apartment and seems to possess a competence. She receives late in the afternoon a letter sent daily from a neighboring cafe. To the waiter she is liberal, tipping him frequently.

Not long ago this waiter, when passing along Third avenue, was accosted by a beggar. "Man, give me a tip," he was repeatedly, repulsively ugly and squally.
The waiter gave her a mutilated coin and the beggar thanked him volubly. The next day the waiter received the same mutilated coin from the woman to whom he had given the tip. He was astounded.
He could not believe that the woman who tipped in so regal a manner and the wretched beggar of the avenue were one and the same person.

He concluded to experiment. Marking a coin he took a position on the avenue.
Soon the same woman that had begged from him the night before asked him for alms. He gave her the marked piece of money. Two days afterwards he received it from the woman of the apartment when she paid for her breakfast. He then accused her of mendacity. She, discovering that she was cleverly caught, laughed and said: "We both take tips, you and I."

The waiter relished the joke. He continues to serve her. She continues to tip him and to prey upon the public.—The Epoch.

Causes of Fires.
Carelessness takes the lead in causing fires in New York city. Out of 708 fires which were reported in such of quarterly report of the fire department 385 are put down as the result of carelessness.
Smokers were responsible for fifty-nine smoke fires for nineteen. It looks as though the smokers were as much in need of regulation as the street dealers in fireworks.
